At Goddard Smith Solicitors, your best interests are our prime concern. Whether you are an individual, concerned about your employment or an employer who is concerned about problems with staff we have specialist team of employment solicitors providing professional advice.

Our employment lawyers provide expert advice on the whole range of employment issues affecting employers, employees and those who have been dismissed.

Employment laws over recent years have become a complex legal nightmare, with numerous rapidly changing legal procedures that we can guide you through. Should you wish to bring an employment claim, or you are an employer faced with the prospect of an employee who wishes to bring an employment claim we can provide you with sound employment law advice.

It doesn't matter if the employment was, part-time, full time, temporary or casual Goddard Smith Solicitors can provide advice on the following employment matters:

- Unfair Dismissal / dismissal Claims
- Discrimination
- Breach of Contract
- Redundancy
- Harassment
- Directors duties and service contracts
- Drafting policies and disciplinary and grievance procedures
- Advising on the employment law issues of buying and selling a business

When you instruct Goddard Smith you will be assigned a dedicated employment solicitor who will be in charge of your case from start to finish and they will be your single contact throughout the entire employment claim. Your employment lawyer will advise at each step of the way and try and settle the matter as quickly as possible for the maximum satisfaction.
